

Words First Advice and Support Line

Is your school
struggling to access
Speech and Language
Therapy services?

The Words First advice line may be able to help!

Our support and advice is for SENDCos and teaching assistants who support children with SLCN.

If you have questions, need advice or coaching to help meet the needs of your SLCN pupils, our support and advice line could help!

Training available includes:

- * Words First Listen and Learn
- * Vocabulary Intervention
- * Colourful Semantics
- * Emotional Regulation
- * Lego Therapy

And more ...

The service will provide you with:

- Practical advice on how to support the children you are responsible for
- Training on specific interventions as agreed with your SENDCo.

You will receive:

- One-to-one coaching, advice and guidance on SaLT-related topics
- Five 45-minute sessions of specific advice or online training with our Speech and Language Therapist, Ann Mason
- Advice sheets
- Resources and handouts to use with the children.

Cost: FREE intro call of 30 minutes

£200 for 5 sessions including advice sheets and resources.

Book your call by emailing a.mason@wordsfirst.uk

Sessions will be hosted by Words First Speech and Language Therapist Ann Mason (MSc, reg HCPC, RCSLT). In addition to her Masters degree, she holds an Honours degree in Psychology and an International Montessori Diploma. Prior to practising as a Speech and Language Therapist she taught in pre-schools, mainstream schools and adult education.
